

Doris Goes to School

Say hello to the new Kindergartener!

Our brave little trooper started school May 5th at the Dansoman Presbyterian Nursery school, an inclusive Montessori school located in Accra, Ghana.

She's thriving in class, taking part in singing, recitals, and of course, lots and lots of play!

Doris continues to improve every day, even as she awaits her final chemo treatments.

We're excited about the strides she's making and look forward to watching her bloom.
